Report

27-12-2023

Shri Veer Pulikeshi Vidya Vardhak Samstha's Shri. S.B.Mamadapur Arts, Commerce & Science College Badami Department of Political Science has organized One Day State Level Seminar on under the IQAC on 27-12-2023 .

Inaugurator Shri. I.J.Bellenavar gave a special lecture on this occasion. I am grateful to all of you for allowing me this wonderful opportunity to speak on Seminar, which is an extremely important subject topic. I am sure that you all will feel enriched with knowledge after completion of this event.

Resource Person Speech : Dr. I.J.Bellenavar gave a special lecture on this occasion, good morning to all of you. Having the pleasure of speaking about Seminar is an honour and a privilege for me. It gives me great pleasure to be with you this morning at the opening of this Session of the seminar of the department of political science.

Major challenges to Indian Democracy

- Illiteracy.

Illiteracy among people was a matter of grave concern for the successful functioning of democracy in India on the eve of independence and it still continues to be a major challenge. The level of education of citizens is a key to both the successful functioning of democracy and socio-economic development of the country. And perhaps, more importantly, it is an essential condition for human dignity. But the state of formal literacy was almost dismal when India achieved independence. The literacy rate in 1951 was mere 18.33 per cent and female literacy was negligible with 8.9 percent. It was, therefore, feared by many that the citizens would not be able to play their roles effectively and exercise their right to vote meaningfully which is an individual's expression of the power of the people.

- Poverty.

Even now a considerable proportion of Indian population lives below poverty line, called 'BPL'. The poverty line means an income level below which human beings cannot provide for their basic necessities of food, much less for clothes and shelter. The governmental definition of poverty line during the 1960s sought to measure the extent of poverty on the amount of income required to purchase a barest minimum desirable food having nutritional standards of caloric intake by a person. According to it, in Indian conditions, a person in rural areas needs an average of 2400 calories per day and in urban areas an average of 2100 calories per day in order to keep himself above the poverty line.

- Gender discrimination.

The Constitution of India enjoins upon the State to ensure that men and women are treated as equals and there is no discrimination against women. Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties as well as the Directive Principles of State Policy make these intensions very clear But the discrimination against females continues to be a fact of life. It is clearly reflected in the sex ratio, child sex ratio and maternal mortality rate. The number of females in comparison to males has been declining ever since 1901. In 1901, the sex ratio was 972 females per 1000 males. It came down to 927 females per 1000 males in 1991. According to 2011 Census it is 940 females per 1000 males which is still very unfavourable to females. In some of the States, the 2011 Census reported a very low sex ratio of 877 females per 1000 males (Haryana), the lowest being 618 in Daman & Diu and 866 in the NCT of Delhi.

- Regionalism.

Although development process in the country aims at growth and development of all regions, the regional disparities and imbalances in terms of differences in per capita income, literacy rates, state of health and educational infrastructure and services, population situation and levels of industrial and agricultural development continue to exist. Existence and continuation of regional inequalities both among States and within a State create a feeling of neglect, deprivation and discrimination. This situation has led to regionalism manifested in demands for creation of new States, autonomy or more powers to States or even secession from the country.

- Casteism.

Have you ever experienced the role of caste in your life and society? You will agree that the most detrimental and inhuman aspect of the caste system is the practice of untouchability which is continuing in spite of the constitutional ban imposed on it. This has led to segregation of so called low castes or 'Dalits', depriving them of education and other social benefits. The Dalits have been typically performing menial labour and some of the hardest physical work in society. Casteism has played a negative role even in the democratic political processes. In fact, casteism has become notorious as a strategy of exploitation of caste consciousness for narrow political gains. The caste system acts against the roots of democracy.

- Communalism:

Communalism and religious fundamentalism have acquired a very dangerous form and alarming proportion in India. They disrupt the pattern of co-existence in our multi-religious society. Communalism is an affront to India's nationalist identity and a tragic setback to its evolving secular culture.

Shri R.S.Mulimani presidential remarks the aims and objectives, Importance of the state level seminar. Kumari. Lakshmi Hadimani welcomed with prayer song. Kumari Priyanka Nayak gave the welcome speech. Shri S. R Malagi introduced the chief guest. Shri A H Holi proposed vote of thanks. Shri Devika Hadimani hosted the programme.
